

TERMITES IN AUSTRALIA

UNDERSTAND THE RISK

Termites cause more damage to Australian homes than natural disasters such as fires, floods & storms combined

$1.5
BILLION

They cost Australian homeowners an estimated $1.5 billion annually

1 IN 3

Aussie homes are affected by termites at some point

In Australia, termites are responsible for more than 80% of all structural damage to homes

80
%

TERMITES IN NUMBERS

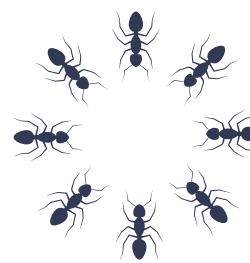

250 Million

of years termites have existed on earth

100,000+

of subterranean termites in a single colony can reach a few hundred thousand

360

of termite species in Australia; 12 of which are considered pests

6.8

of kilos of wood a single termite colony can consume in one week

ZERO

of standard home insurance policies that cover termite damage

Termite damage can have a significant impact on the saleability and value of a home

HOW TO PREVENT TERMITES

Regular Termite Inspections with a qualified & reputable pest control company, at least annually

Minimise excess moisture around the home

Remove wood and cellulose debris from subfloor areas & do not store against building

THIS INFOGRAPHIC WAS BROUGHT TO YOU BY

